

CIOMA | MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

History of the Fund

The CIOMA Memorial Scholarship Fund was originally established with memorial contributions made by industry friends in memory of Ron Ahlport, Fred Bertetta Sr., and Jim Divine (CIOMA's first Executive Vice President). This fund was created specifically to encourage and directly benefit students from within our industry. Today, the CMSF provides scholarship awards to deserving employees and children of our organization's members and staff.

In an effort to better align with our members and those we serve, we've changed our name from CIOMA (the California Independent Oil Marketers Association) to CFCA, the California Fuels & Convenience Alliance. CFCA has come to not only represent the independent marketers of fuels, but all of California's gas stations, convenience stores, and service stations. Our members have been the pioneers in fueling and transportation technologies and we're proud to continue representing the small, family- and minority-owned businesses that keep California moving forward.

About the Program

The California Fuels and Convenience Alliance (CFCA) has long supported the principles of educational opportunity, hard work, and community involvement. To further these principles and to assist eligible employees and children of our industry, the CIOMA Memorial Scholarship Fund (the Fund) was established as a Nonprofit California Corporation and approved by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) Tax Exempt Organization. Contributions to the Fund are tax deductible to the extent they satisfy state and federal tax law requirements. The Fund is publicly supported by generous contributions from CFCA members, their communities, and those who share an interest or affiliation with the fuels and convenience industry. Scholarships are awarded to students that will be attending college or vocational programs at any accredited postsecondary institution.
